

Expeditionary Economics: A New Model for Post-Conflict Countries

Wednesday, April 28, 2010; 09:30 - 10:45 AM

Moderator:

Robert Litan, Vice President, Research and Policy, Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation

Speakers:

Clare Lockhart, Director, Institute for State Effectiveness

Jeffrey Peterson, Colonel, U.S. Army; Professor of Economics, West Point Military Academy

Kori Schake, Research Fellow, Hoover Institution

MILKEN INSTITUTE

Robert Litan

Vice President, Research and Policy

Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation

KAUFFMAN

The Foundation of Entrepreneurship

© 2010 by the Ewing Marion Kauffman Foundation. All rights reserved.

Expeditionary Economics

MILKEN INSTITUTE

- More attention should be given to economic growth post-conflict
- The key to growth is firm formation and growth
- U.S. military should take the lead